Year's Biggest Weekend Set

"Western — Dream Maker, Record Breaker."

This is the theme, signifying Western's continuing progress in educational service to citizens of the Commonwealth and its goals for the future, upon which the College will conduct its annual Homecoming celebration, climaxing on Saturday, Oct. 31.

Many campus organizations will use the phrase to keynote decorations of floats and dormitories and promotional activities leading up to the high point of the festivities, the football game between Western and arch-rival Eastern at 2 p.m.

The activities began this morning with the annual pre-Homecoming Chapel. A pep rally is scheduled for 4 p.m. Friday and the Homecoming coronation of the Homecoming Queen, starts at 9 o'clock that night in the Academic-Athletic Building.

Get-togethers

Numerous receptions, coffee hours, luncheons, displays and informal gatherings hosted by various organizations are scheduled throughout Saturday morning. The College hosts its annual Homecoming Get-Together Coffee in the lobby of the Academic-Athletic Building at 10 a.m. The Homecoming Parade through downtown Bowling Green and back to Western begins at 11 a.m.

Following the football game, the Homecoming Reception will be held in the Academic-Athletic Building lobby. A post-game dance, sponsored by the Inter-Fraternity Council, starts at 8 p.m. in the Academic-Athletic Building.

Homecoming Queen

Six girls have been nominated for Homecoming Queen, to be chosen by campus-wide election tomorrow. The senior nominees are Christine DeVries, and Carolyn McClard both of Bowling Green. Juniors are Linda Thomas, Burkesville, and Kay Washer, Auburn. The sophomore candidates are Sandra Dever, Louisville, and

Classes Elect New Student Leaders

Approximately 20 percent of the student body turned out last week to cast votes for class officers. The climax of a two-week campaign came with the announcement of winners.

SENIORS PICKED Ronnie Roberts for class president. He is a business administration major from Somerset.

Vice-president is Pat Miller, physical education major from Hodgenville. Pam Picard, English major from Somerset, is secretary and Harriett Thomas, elementary education major from Bowling Green, is treasurer.

Ky. Kandy Kohlmeier, sociology and psychology major from Evansville, Ind., is treasurer.

SOPHOMORES SLATED Joe Cook as president — he's an accounting major from Bowling Green.

Louie Tonini, business management major from Louisville, is vice-president with Cecelia Hammons, a history major from Louisville, as secretary. Treasurer is David Arvin, a pre-med student from Hopkinsville.

FRESHMEN, in their first election, named Bob Humphries, a pre-engineering student from Washington, Ky., for president.

Second in command is Bob Van Corbach, a psychology major from Fort Knox. Geri Puckett is secretary — she's a

Pre-Homecoming Chapel Opens Weekend Program

Homecoming activities began officially this morning with the Pre-Homecoming Chapel assembly in the A-A Building.

The Western band, cheerleaders, football team and Homecoming Queen candidates took part in the program.

The significance of Homecoming at Western was explained by Dr. H. L. Stephens, chairman of the Homecoming committee.

Coach Nick Denes introduced the entire Hilltopper football squad who will face arch-rival Eastern in the Homecoming tilt at 2 p.m. in the Western Stadium Saturday.

Lee Robertson, chairman of the Homecoming Queen committee introduced the six candidates, one of which will be elected in balloting tomorrow to reign over the Homecoming festivities after her crowning Friday evening at the Homecoming Dance in the A-A Building.

Robert G. Cochran, chairman of the Pre-Homecoming Chapel committee, explained the pep rally and parade Friday afternoon. He also outlined plans for the Saturday morning parade scheduled to begin at the A-A Building at 11 o'clock.

Serving with Dr. Stephens on various Homecoming committees are many students and teachers. According to all reports of the planning which has gone into this year's Homecoming celebration it will be the biggest and best in Western history.

Heading the dance decorations sub-committee is Roy

Two Western Coeds Win Scholarships

Janiee Carol Tones, Moorman, and Ina Carol Woodroof of Owensboro were the winners of Western Kentucky Gas Scholarships for this year. Both girls are students here.

Miss Tones graduated from Muhlenburg Central high school and is majoring in home economics. She is a junior.

Miss Woodroof graduated from Owensboro high school and is majoring in English. She is a freshman.

Western Kentucky Gas company gives ten scholarships every year to college students all over the state.

The students who qualify for the scholarships must live in one of the counties served by the gas company.

The colleges to whom the students attend make the decision to whom the scholarships will be given and not the company.

The company has given 46 scholarships to students of Kentucky colleges since 1958.

Judging Team Places Second At Memphis

Western's Dairy Cattle Judging team won second place in the Southern Intercollegiate Dairy Judging contest at Memphis, Tenn., during the Mid-South Fair.

Jenks Britt, a Bowling Green junior placed second individually in overall competition.

This is the third consecutive year that Western has placed second in the competition. Western was the only small college entered in the contest.

The team consisted of Jack Britt, Elsie Cooper, William Tucker and Jenks Britt. Billy Adams of the Agriculture department is in charge of the team.

Three members of the Judging team also participated in the Kentucky State Fair earlier in the fall.

Jenks Britt placed first in the overall individual competition and brother Jack Britt finished fourth in the field.

Elsie Cooper also competed for Western, marking the first time a girl had been on the college Dairy Judging team.

The next trip for the team will be Dec. 5 when they travel to Chicago for the International Livestock Show. More than 30 land grant colleges are expected to compete for top honors in the international show.

Hallmark Offers Money For Poems

The Kansas City Star and Hallmark Cards have announced the second annual Kansas City Poetry Contest. Fifteen-hundred dollars and one book publication will be awarded in prizes according to Thorpe Menn, literary editor of the Star.

Six honor awards totalling $600 will be offered to college students for single poems. Hallmark Cards, Inc., of Kansas City, Mo., will sponsor this contest.

Another, the Dr. Edward A. Devins Award, offers a cash payment of $500 for a book-length manuscript. It will be published and distributed by the University of Missouri Press. The total value of this award will be determined by sales. The $500 is in the form of a guaranteed advance royalty payment.

Both the Devins award, and the Hallmark awards are offered in open competition on a national basis. The Hallmark awards are open to students of undergraduate or graduate status.

All entries must be submitted by February 1, 1965. Winners will be announced April 29 at the last of the 1964-65 American Poets Series sponsored by the Kansas City Jewish Community Center.

Judged Anonymously
All entries will be judged anonymously. Even the names of judges, all nationally recognized poets and critics, will not be revealed until after the contests are decided. Entrants must submit their work with no clue to authorship. The name of the author is to be enclosed in a sealed envelope attached to the entry.

Last year's contest was such a success that Dr. Devins, the University of Missouri Press, and Hallmark Cards were prompted to join with the newspaper and volunteer additional prize money.

Players Plan Luncheon For Homecoming

For alumni and members, Western Players have scheduled their annual homecoming luncheon for 11:30 a.m., Saturday, in the main dining room of the Helm Hotel.

One unique feature of the luncheon is that it provides a "box seat" for viewing the homecoming parade as it passes around Bowling Green public square.

Reservations for the luncheon are $1.75. These may be made by contacting Toni Martin, social chairman, or Frank Hammond, business manager.

The luncheon is the second of Western Players' socials for the year.

Big Red Marchers

Planning, Practice Are Keys To Band Shows

BY FRAN NELSON
Herald Feature Editor

A full two weeks of concentrated practice will result in another Big Red extravaganza this Saturday when the 100-strong Western marching band takes the field at half-time. The band will entertain the Homecoming crowd of 1964 with "A Musical Salute to Western's Alumni."

The tunes for the show encompass the last five decades in American music. Such numbers as "Me and My Shadow," "The Sunny Side of the Street," and a special dance arrangement to the Charleston will make up the program. Featured will be Bennie Beach of the Music department faculty, who will be backed up by the band in a solo trumpet arrangement of "I Can't Get Started."

Of course, the band will be on hand at pre-game time to musically introduce the Homecoming queen and her court. The royal sextet will be escorted by members of Pershing Rifles and Scabbard and Blade.

Plans Made Early

Like every show performed by the Big Red Band throughout the year, this show has been months in the making. Each show has its beginning as a thematic idea and is built around the theme. According to band director Ed Knob, ideas for shows may occur at any time of the year. He records these ideas in a notebook for football season.

After settling on a definite theme, music that will carry out this theme must be selected.

Newman Club Planning Dance Tomorrow Night

The Newman club, Catholic student organization, met recently at Newman Hall, 1403 College street.

Club officers for 1964-65 are president, Lorraine Thomas; vice president, Barbara Dudak; recording secretary, Sandra Clegg; corresponding secretary, Joan Danielson; treasurer, John Halmister; and historian, Mike Cheswick.

Under the direction of Father William Allard, the club is sponsoring many activities. Scheduled for this week are:

Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. Sister Mary Owen will speak to the club.

Oct. 29, from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., a Halloween Dance in the College high school gym. Come in a costume or street clothes.

Last weekend the officers attended a regional leadership program at the University of Kentucky.

This music must then be arranged to meet the theme, situation, and the band. All arrangements are done by Knob, who also writes some original works for the shows.

More Music

The organization of a half-time show now calls for plotting various formations. Since there is a nationwide trend toward less movement and more music, Knob allows the music to suggest the formations that will be used. Just as every football player must know all the team's plays, so must every bandsman know all the formations. Every marcher is given a chart of each formation and transitional movement, and it is not uncommon for each member to have as many as nine formations to learn for each show.

All plans completed, the band begins practicing, often as much as six hours a week. This year's rehearsals take place in the A-A Building parking lot, where yards and yards of yellow tape mark off a makeshift football field. While the band rehearses its music and movements, the Silver Girls, with the leadership of Dennis Burchett of Cookeville, Tenn., work out routines to fit the show.

Work Never Over

By Saturday, the Western Band will be ready for drum major Jerry Dozer of Central City to blow the whistle that will begin the show. But the conclusion of the Homecoming presentation will not mean the end of work for the band members. Monday they will begin work on a show for the next home game. And plans are already under way for even bigger and better shows for next season.

Jane Baize, Owensboro.

The Queen's identity won't be known until she is crowned by Harold McGuffey, president of the Western Alumni Association, at the Homecoming Dance on Friday night. She and her court will be introduced just prior to the Western-Eastern football game Saturday afternoon.

The winners of competition in decoration of parade floats and dormitories will also be announced just before the kickoff for the game. Officials from Eastern will serve as judges for the decoration competition.

Backstagers Are Praised For Staging Performance

By Louatha Banks

Few people often understand the technical and promotional efforts that go on behind the scenes of a Western Players production such as the forthcoming "Six Characters in Search of an Author."

Asa D. Raymond, chairman of Western Players, could well explain the many behind-the-scenes aspects of a play. He would probably use the words used so often by Western's play director Dr. Russell H. Miller — "It takes ten of you backstage for every one out front."

Raymond, a seasoned stage manager for such Western Players productions as "The Tea-house of the August Moon" and "A Far Country," will serve again in that capacity for Luigi Pirandello's "Six Characters." He will be assisted by A. J. Jones.

For each set of a play there is a miniature set designed of a scale of one inch to one foot. People working on this scenic design committee are Earl Murphy, Frank Hammond, Jimmy Hancock, and Ron Wetherell.

Construction Begins

After a set has been designed, actual construction and decoration begins. This and all other technical aspects of production are charged to Leonard Hart, instructor in the English department. Jim Diugrid and Ron Wetherell are committee heads for the jobs.

Another duty that must be done to make a successful play is a good publicity campaign. Western Players public relations representative is Jerry Hensely. Publicity manager is Louatha Banks.

Those things which happen during the actual performance which require much attention are crew work (for set changes), properties, lighting, and sound. People in charge of these sections in order are Skip Wagner, Bonnie Clements, Terry Childers and Jones.

ASA D. RAYMOND

Assistants

Of course there are many weeks of rehearsals leading up to an actual production. During this time there must be script assistants and director assistants. These assistants are Dan Omlar, David Schramm, Wag-ner, Bonnie Clements, Carolyn Lutz, and Dale Evans.

The people most closely associated with the actors are the costumers and make-up artists. Rebecca Pierce will supervise make-up while Schramm works with costuming.

One can't leave out the smiling people who meet the audience and usher them in. Pam Baker and Allen Miller see to it that everyone is welcomed properly.

Now one may be able to see more clearly that the people behind the scenes are "Ten-to-one" and are all working toward a successful production and 1964-65 Western Players season.

Miss Peden Is Princess, Fair Queen

Miss JoAnne Peden, reigning Miss County Fair of Kentucky and Kentucky's Tobacco Princess, recently returned from Richmond, Va., where she attended the 16th annual Tobacco Festival. Miss Peden is a junior English major from Glasgow.

Thirty-two girls from Kentucky, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, West Virginia and Virginia participated in the contest for the title of Queen of Tobacco Land.

The girls were escorted by V. M. I. boys to luncheons and a President's reception. Motion picture star Penny Edwards was the mistress of ceremonies during all the activities, and was on hand when the girls were formally introduced to the citizens of Richmond at the Mosque. On the third day of festivities, the ten finalists had been chosen and performed their talent at the Mosque. Miss Peden was one of the lucky ten, and performed the Charleston as her talent.

As the week progressed, there was a parade of 134 units, honoring the girls. The final day was filled with excitement and tenseness, as the crowning drew near. Miss Martha White Walder of South Hill, Va., was the winner. She was crowned at the half-time of the Virginia and V. M. I. football game.

The climax of a week of thrills was a Tobacco Ball, which all contestants attended.

Despite Many Changes Spirit's The Same

Homecoming is — jubilant exclamations of recognition, a recognition of a new era, and, of course, a victory over Eastern.

We as students know that you as Alumni will find Western, not as you left it, but still possessing the ideals that have sustained it through the years.

Contrary to what you may have heard recently about college youth, we still believe education to be the object of one's four or infinite years on The Hill, — some students "make" A's but others "are flunked" by their teachers — and of course the students continue to exhibit a mutual attraction for the opposite sex.

But all isn't as it once was — the professor who flunked you isn't here now, bless his heart. Although he did give you something; a lesson in failure — strolls around the campus, which must include a walk under the bridge, are not as private as they once were — and the only noise in the "Red Barn" is that of renovation.

This is as it should be. No two years or graduating classes are the same. The various student personalities in the class of 1977 provided you countless memories. Western was the meeting place — friendship was the binding force.

Candidate, Candidate Spare That Tree....

Candidates in the recent campus elections deserve commendation for the enthusiasm they showed in their campaigns. Ingenuity reflected in the construction of campaign signs and posters also deserves noting.

There were also some disturbing features about the elections. Among these is the indiscriminate placing of signs and posters on trees, doors, fireplugs — anything susceptible to a thumbtack or a piece of scotch tape.

Good taste should be observed in placing of campaign materials. In the future this material should be restricted to places provided for bulletins and notices. If more space is necessary, perhaps these could be provided at election time.

HILLTOPICS

by Bob Adams

I have noticed that there has been an unusual — or it might be better to say — a typical Western spirit of cooperation in preparation for this year's Homecoming activities. There have been many people — students and faculty and administrators — who have spent hours working on plans for this occasion. Western can take great pride in this outstanding accomplishment.

On Saturday each of us has a personal responsibility to make this a warm, friendly Homecoming for alumni and friends of the college who return to the campus.

"Oh, the enrollment is larger and there are more buildings, but the spirit is just the same."

Current Readings - - - Olympics To Politics

By MARTHA B. WRIGHT

Do you know the myth concerning the origin of the Olympics? If not, there is no better source for this information than An Illustrated History of the Olympics by Richard Schaap.

If you know the myth, you can still thrill as you thumb through the 319 pages of this new book now in the library.

The last chapter concerns the 1960 Olympics in Squaw Valley. As you read it and examine the realistic illustrations, you can re-live those exciting moments when millions viewed the games and Squaw Valley became an internationally known place.

Do You Know?

Do you know the names of the congressmen from your state? Only a brief period of your time will be required for you to find their names, also helpful information about each of them and all U.S. congressmen which are listed in the Congressional Staff Directory.

A uniqueness of this book is the helpful color code index which allows you to quickly flip to the specific section you desire.

Perhaps more reference books will use this technique, adding attractiveness to the book in addition to efficiency and speed in use of it.

Of special interest to sociology, economics and government students is The Economic Almanac 1964. It is published in cooperation with Newsweek.

A four volume Directory of American Scholars, edited by the Jacques Cattel Press will be useful and interesting to students in various fields. Volume I is History and includes full biographical information on important personalities in that field. Included among them is a former Western teacher, Dr. Sturgill.

Who's Who

The new edition of Who's Who in America is not to be overlooked when browsing in the library. Included among other notables in this biographical reference are President Kelly Thompson and Dean Raymond Cravens.

The Concise Dictionary of American Biography includes genealogical data in addition to biographical information. It ranges from Cleveland Abbe, a noted astronomer and meteorologist to Eliakum Zinsler, a Yiddish poet.

Of interest to every Western student is the Celebrity Register. This is not a "Blue Book", but is just what the name implies.

It proves that American society has really changed from the standard "Who are you?" to "How do you do?" So don't overlook this new book.

Never Fear

There is one more new reference book which you should Continued on page 7, column 1

Election Nears Vote If You Can

We come upon the scene as Joe College and John Student are huddled together in their room indulging in a some intelligent discussion of next Tuesday's presidential election.

We know Joe to be of moderate-to-strong Democratic leanings while John has a background of relatively conservative Republicanism.

As we enter John says to Joe:

"You gonna vote for Johnson?"

Joe: "Aw, I guess so. I sure ain't votin for Goldwater."

John: "You got an absentee ballot?"

Joe: "Yeah, but I ain't fixed it up yet."

John: "Them things sure are a lotta trouble to get ready to send back."

Joe: "You gonna vote for Goldwater?"

John: "Aw, I guess so. I sure ain't votin for Johnson."

If the statements made by Joe College and John Student sound somewhat similar, it is because they are similar.

The statements may also be similar to some made by you or by one of your friends.

Although relatively few persons, students or otherwise, seem tremendously excited because of the "choice" which they can have in deciding between candidates, the fact remains that a choice must be made.

It is not sufficient to say, "I don't especially care for either candidate." A decision must be made by the people of the United States and no matter which way the decision goes, it should be one which shows, as much as possible, all the attitudes and opinions on this campus and all other campuses in the land.

So vote next Tuesday — even if you must vote for the "lesser of two evils."

At least you will have a right to complain if your choice is elected and he turns out to be what you thought he was all along.

Congress Debaters Initiate Campus Mysteries, Solve Campus 'Crimes'

Liquor in the Student Center, a public brawl involving two of our best football players, stealing TV sets from men's dormitories, and manhandling our campus police force are all activities carried on by Western's Congress Debate club.

Each year, this club stages a crime, has the student criminal publicly arrested by our cooperative campus police, and holds a mock trial for the entertainment and enjoyment of the student body. Naturally, the crime has been planned in advance by the club with the full knowledge of the police.

However, this is where the fiasco comes to an end. The presiding judge at the trial actually holds court in Bowling Green and the student lawyers are assisted by local attorneys in accordance with established trial proceedings.

This annual event is only one of the various activities carried on by the Congress Debate club. Other events include a chapel program on debate or parliamentary procedure and various discussions and debates at club meetings throughout Bowling Green and the surrounding area.

"Here's where leaders are developed," says Dr. William Jenkins, faculty advisor to the group and Dean of the College of Commerce.

Parliamentarian Edgar Goins, a junior English major, stated, "The advantages of our club are many. First of all, a member acquires skill and poise in speaking before a group through practical experience. Also, we debate the current issues of the day and become skilled in parliamentary procedure."

the most significant advantages are that we develop leadership ability and each member has something to do at all times."

The Congress Debate club is currently involved in its annual membership drive. Dr. Jenkins stated, "The club would heartily welcome any person interested in joining and invites all students to attend its meetings held the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 in Room 203 Ogden Hall."

Interested parties can also contact president William Harmon, 1004 Central, vice president John Lovett, 513 Central, or Dr. Jenkins in the College of Commerce offices.

Ron Dillard Commander Of Topper Rebelettes

By KANDY KOHLMAYER

"Right face! Forward march!" These are the familiar commands heard every afternoon at the A-A Building as the Rebelettes, the new girls' drill team, practice.

The Rebelettes is the new organization which is an auxiliary to the Pershing Rifles. The group will consist of 25 girls. The girls are practicing every afternoon for an hour on basic fundamentals of drill.

Boy Commands Girls
How does a boy feel about being in charge of 25 girls all at once?

"Kinda frustrating," says Ronald Dillard, junior, who is the drill master. He is a member of the Pershing Rifles and was chosen to take charge of drilling the girls. A second lieutenant in ROTC, Dillard is a member of the advisory and drill team boards.

Current Reading

examine. And you don't have to know Chinese to read it, even though you will find a few Chinese "scratchings" within its pages. It is the Communist China Yearbook — 1962, printed in Hong Kong.

Do not fear that it will convert you to Communism for it is only a reference book of their notables. For they do have important personalities, we must agree. So don't overlook this book.

Happy hunting in the reference book of your choice and to suit your specific need.

Dillard gave his opinion of the girls' drill team when he said,

"These girls are really trying and with a little cooperation and support from the school, we will be a success."

Dillard is assisted in his work by Kandy Kohlmeier, junior, and Betsy Carroll, sophomore, co-heads of the team.

Miss Kohlmeier had this comment to make,

"It's great! It's one activity that I have been wanting to see on Western's campus for two years. I think the girls who are participating are really enjoying it."

Enthusiasm Noted
The staff in the ROTC department seems to be in favor of the Rebelettes, and Capt. Harlen W. Kinnison, advisor to the PR's said, "The girls drill team! The most enthusiastic group I have ever seen. After only six drill meets the girls are more proficient at basic drill than I had ever thought possible."

"If the team can obtain financial support in purchasing uniforms, their future appearance at public activities should be a definite asset to Western," continued Kinnison.

The Rebelettes have no definite plans for public appearances as of yet, but they hope to be ready by basketball season. By spring they can compete against other college teams.

Brigance. Charles Shuffield, Bill Schlinker, Janette Moore, Margaret Siddens, Sherry Crenshaw, and Jenny Schmidt are working with Brigance.

Dean Mary Burt is chairman of the Queen election committee. She is assisted by Pam Newberry and Butch Rosenbaum.

The Queen coronation committee is headed by Robertson, with Rhea Lazarus, registrar, helping him.

Flowers for Homecoming are the responsibility of Hugh Johnson.

The junior class, with their sponsor Willard Cockrill, is in charge of stadium decorations.

Mike Abell is chairman of the theme committee. Dean Burt, Larry Hall, Viva Johnson, and Raymond Guillaume are the other members of the committee.

Hall is the chairman of the parade committee. He is assisted by Jack Sagabiel, Sgt. James Fox, Sgt. George Taylor, Mrs. Sue Beard, George Thompson, Ed Knob, along with representatives of the IPC and Pan-Hellenic council.

Heading the receptions committee is Bee's Gilbert. Roundtree, Mrs. Marie Carter, Miss Sara Tyler, and Owen Lawson are assisting Mrs. Gilbert.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the dances is headed by Bennie Beach. Lawson, Cockrill, Dan Greenwell, Jerry Cossey, Brenda Haynes, Steve Playl and Lazarus are the other persons on the committee.

Dr. Mary Cole and Dr. Lucia Anderson will host the judges for float and dormitory decorations from Eastern.

Advertising and publicity for Homecoming is headed by Ed Given.

Cossey is chairman of the committee working on the Friday pep rally and parade. Working with him is Knob.

Cochran is head of the arrangements for today's assembly program. Serving on the committee with him are Dr. Stephens, Dean Charles Keown, Dean Ders Downing, Lazarus, Christine DeVries, Al Smith, Playl and Knob.

These committees have spent many hours planning for this weekend. From all indications this will be the greatest Homecoming ever celebrated on the Hill.

Pershing Rifles Color Guard In Fairdale Fair

The Color Guard team of Pershing Rifles' Company B-3 recently performed as part of the annual Fairdale Fair in Fairdale. The team held the place of honor in the street parade.

At the close of the event the color guard was presented with a handsome trophy for its outstanding work and cooperation.

This marks the fourth straight year that Pershing Rifles Company B-3 has been represented at Fairdale.

Members of the color guard are: William Willis, commander; Clem Carter, assistant; and guards Danny Dalton, and David Ricketts. Edmond Smith will be the alternate.

YOUR FASHION HOUSE HOROSCOPE . . .

Here is your heavenly future forecast by the stars.
SCORPIO: October 24—November 31. (Be careful of your health THIS weekend.)

—Mary Anna Cockrell, "Chi O". This may be her lucky weekend. Mac should watch where she wears her white Villager shirt and clothes pin barrette. (If you have never seen a clothes pin barrette be sure and stop by before they are completely sold out.)

—Barbara Preece, "K. D.", Susan Spargur, and Pat Maxwell have joined the FASHION HOUSE Bandwagon. Barbara now owns a cable knit pull-over Camel Sweater by Villager; Susan, a Scotch gold cable knit sweater by Villager and Pat, a French blue skirt and sweater by John Myer. Welcome aboard girls!

Once upon a time there were two sorority girls. One was a pledge and the other was an active . . . but both got together to do a little shopping.

—Cookie Sizemore, "Chi O" is sure to be a standout this weekend in her very fashionable paprika shift. Sherry Williams, "Chi O" pledge, is planning to keep real warm Homecoming by wearing a navy parka by Melton. (although, I doubt that she would have had any real problem.)

—What will a guy look at second? YOU!
1st He will notice a young ladies clothes.
2nd He will notice who is wearing them.
Bobbie Clark is a girl who doesn't have to worry in either case because the face and body come naturally and the hunter green skirt and sweater from the FASHION HOUSE.

—Blouses: Back on Top—Just ask Barbara Paris about her fashionable bow blouse. (these are going to be big this winter, why don't you be one of the first?)

See you next week,
George

GOP Rally, Leaders Named, Feix Chosen

Young Republicans Hear Agar, Cooper

A movie star, a "Goldwater Girl," a Senator and an aspiring Congressman were guests at a Republican rally here recently.

John Agar, noted movie actor, joined Sen. John Sherman Cooper, Diane Shafer from the University of Arizona, and Rhodes Bratcher, second district Congressional candidate, in boosting the Republican cause.

In speaking to the group at the College Street Inn Diners Club, Cooper said that President Johnson should use the slogan: "Think not of what you can do for your country or what your country can do for you. I've already promised it to you."

"Senator Goldwater is not a product of the 'king-makers,'" said Agar.

Miss Shafer told the gathering that from her interviews on the Western campus too many college students do not know what the A. D. A. (Americans for Democratic Action) stands for. She said, "Students don't realize what is wrong with giving economic aid to Communist countries, and they don't know who Bobby Baker is."

Bratcher said that "the A.D.A. has lost confidence in constitutional government, thereby saying that we are no longer capable of handling our affairs. The A.D.A. stands for unilateral disarmament whether others want it or not, a welfare state, nuclear test treaty with no inspections and a hands-off policy on Cuba."

Bratcher said Representative Natcher has voted 80 per cent with the A.D.A., including wheat to Russia on credit.

The Congressional candidate appeared on WLTV, last night from 9-10 p.m. for a question-answer session.

French Honor Society Elects New Officers

Sam Edwards was elected president of Pi Delta Phi, French national honor society, for the coming year in a recent meeting.

Also elected were Sara Harris, vice president; Mary Jane Knight, secretary; and Georgea Harness, treasurer.

Activities planned for the year include presenting recognition of an outstanding student in French on Award's Day and sponsoring a French play in cooperation with Western Players and the French club.

Dr. Paul Hatcher is faculty director of Pi Delta Phi.

Spanish Teachers To Show Films

The Chapter of American Association of Teachers of Spanish will present four films in room 220 of Diddle Arena, Saturday, Nov. 7, at 10:30 a.m. There will be no admission charge.

These films concern Spain, South America, and Puerto Rico.

All students, alumni, and other interested persons are cordially invited.

Sigma Tau Delta To Meet Thursday

Sigma Tau Delta, honorary professional English fraternity, will meet tomorrow in Cherry Hall, Room 103, at 4 p.m. All members should attend.

All English majors or minors who have completed nine or more hours in English and have a .80 standing in English are invited to attend a meeting Nov. 5, in Room 103 of Cherry Hall at 4 p.m. No formal invitations will be issued to prospective members.

French Club Plans Panel For Next Meet

Games, refreshments and a planned program for the year highlighted the French club's first meeting.

Each of the club's officers led a portion of the activities.

Jan Coates, president, presided. The year's plan was presented by Sam Edwards, vice-president. Treasurer Donna Harris led the games followed by secretary Georgea Harness's serving of refreshments.

A panel, led by Mrs. Jean Eldred, club sponsor, will be presented at the next meeting November 18 in the A-A Building at 4 p.m. Bill Willis and Bev Allen, also on the panel, will be discussing France.

Psychology Club Holds First Meeting Of Year

Psychology club held its first meeting of the year in Room 19, Cherry Hall with Dr. Neil Holliman as sponsor.

A number of plans were made for future programs which will be of interest to all psychology majors and minors.

All students interested in psychology are urged to join the club. Officers will be elected in the near future.

Meetings will be each first and third Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. in Room 19, Cherry Hall.

Enchantment Of Spain Keynotes Club Theme

Spain and its beauty, Espana y Sus Bellezas, will be the theme of this fall's Spanish club.

Movies of a bullfight and slides of Spanish landscapes were featured at the club's first meeting last week.

In the officer election, the club chose Carlos Ortiz for president; Jerry Resch, vice-president; Betty Ries, secretary; Sue Smiley, treasurer; and Betty Palmer and Wanda Carpenter, reporters.

Randy Atcher entertained the group by singing a Spanish ballad.

A cast of an elk was the door prize won by Larry Page.

H. F. McChesney, former head of the Foreign Language department, was a special guest.

Intramurals, Ballet Highlight Meeting

John Hopper, graduate assistant in the physical education department, spoke on men's intramurals at a recent meeting of the Physical Education club.

Lanita Caudill, a Western sophomore, presented a ballet number.

Eleven club members plan to attend the fall conference of the state KAHPER at Cumberland Falls State Park, Oct. 30-Nov. 1. They will participate in the student section.

Plans are under way for an all-campus swimming meet. The date will be announced later.

Anne Truitt Named To Seek State Post

Miss Anne Truitt was selected by members of the Iva Scott Home Economics club to be Western's nominee for vice-president of the College Club section of the Kentucky Home Economics Association.

Miss Truitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Truitt of Rockfield, is a junior home economics major. She is an active member of the Honors Program and the Iva Scott Home Economics club.

The K.H.E.A. Convention will be held in Louisville on Nov. 6 and 7. Members of the faculty and officers representing the Western chapter will also attend the convention.

Sociology Club Elects Officers, Makes Plans

Sociology club met last week to elect officers and plan the year's activities.

Linda Schoenlaub was elected president. Other officers are vice-president, Randy Beamer; secretary, Kathy Holloper; and treasurer, Kay Washer.

Louatha Banks was appointed publicity chairman and Frank Kopas was named program chairman. Ernest Gendron of the Sociology department was selected new sponsor for the club.

It was announced that the members should meet at 5 p.m. today to have Talisman pictures made.

The Sociology club was established last spring for all people majoring, minoring, or interested in sociology. Meetings are held the second Thursday of every month at Ogden Hall.

Bill Lee Elected; Lancaster Speaks

Bill Lee was inaugurated as president of the Biology club at a meeting last week.

Serving with Lee are vice-president John Smith, secretary Sharon Halcomb, treasurer Suanne Smith, and reporter Glenn Womack.

Dr. L. Y. Lancaster spoke to the club which is named for him. He outlined a brief history of the club's activities and organization.

The second Thursday of each month at 7 p.m. has been slated for future meetings.

The club picture for the yearbook will be made at the November session.

Dr. Hugh Puckett sponsors the Biology club.

Honors Names Added

The following students are members of the Freshman Honors Colloquium — Edward Thomas, Joyce McRoy, Harriett Hollan, and Linda Willoughby. These names were inadvertently omitted in an earlier story of Honors Colloquium participants.

Home Ec Majors Hear History of Their Club

"What is the Iva Scott Club?" At a recent meeting of the Iva Scott Home Economics club, Ann Cadle and Anne Truitt explained the story to many who had asked.

Mills Iva Scott was the first department head of home economics at Western. Her ability and personality were determining factors in the early foundation of home economics on campus, said the girls.

The Home Economics club bearing her name continues as a living memorial to one who influenced the ideals and standards of many.

First semester officers elected are president, Margaret Ann Chapman; vice-president, Judy Stiles; secretary, Judy Sharp; treasurer, Kathy Davis; historian, Arlene Colvin; reporter, Ann Cadle; recreation leader, Mary Lee Bussell; parliamentarian, Frances Townes; and faculty sponsors, Mrs. Martha Jenkins and Mrs. Bertha Jones.

FIRST NATIONAL COLONY—Phi Delta Omega sorority became the Epsilon Zeta colony of the Sigma Kappa national sorority on May 26, 1964. Phi Delta Omega was the first sorority at Western to affiliate with a national organization.

Greeks End Rush Week, Plan Homecoming Fun

Homecoming is probably the biggest weekend for the Greeks other than their spring formals. All groups have been preparing for this weekend for many weeks. A lot of hard work goes into building floats, sending out invitations to alumni, and arranging parties. All this, in addition to rush, has kept the Greeks very busy. But somehow Greek homecoming festivities are always worth it.

KAPPA DELTA

Mrs. Lorraine Alden, a K.D. alumna, who is presently employed in the college library, is the new sponsor of the Delta Gamma Colony of Kappa Delta sorority.

KD's Rose Baldwin and Roslee Simone have been selected as feature editors of the Talisman Staff.

Susan Jackson has been chosen sweetheart of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. KD's Lynn Snead and Gail Taylor have been chosen as R.O.T.C. company sponsors. Harriett Thomas was recently elected treasurer of the senior class.

The K.D.'s have been very busy practicing volleyball, trying out for the drill team, preparing homecoming decorations and putting in a few hours of practicing flag-football for the "Powder-Puff Flag-Football Game" sponsored by the Sigma Phi Alpha fraternity. The game will be held sometime after homecoming.

SIGMA KAPPA

On May 26, Phi Delta Omega sorority was installed as a colony of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Two of the Sigma Kappa traveling secretaries, Miss Judy Curry and Miss Mary McDonald; officers of the Gamma Pi Chapter from Kentucky Wesleyan College, and two local alumnae, Mrs. Jack Scott and Mrs. Louise Hutcherson, conducted the installation. Mrs. Hutcherson, assistant librarian at Western, has been the faculty sponsor for two years.

Sigma Kappa, founded at Colby College in 1874, is one of the oldest of the Greek letter organizations. It has 102 chapters and over 200 alumnae chapters throughout the United States with over 37,000 total membership. The formal initiation of the colony as a chapter will be in January.

This summer Miss Jeanne Marty and Miss Sherry Bryant attended the Sigma Kappa National Convention held in Hot Springs, Arkansas and were initiated as active members.

KAPPA SIGMA

"Autumn in Rome" was the theme for Kappa Sigma's Fall rush party last Thursday night. The "Castaways" provided the entertainment while Kappa Sigs, rushees and their dates dined between Roman columns.

Kappa Sigma wishes to take this opportunity to invite all Kappa Sigmas and Kappa Sigma pledges who have recently transferred to Western and who are interested in continuing their fraternal activities to contact C. M. Hepp, 125 South Hall or to come to the weekly meetings in Thompson Hall. Meetings are at 8 p.m. in the second floor lecture room.

ALPHA GAMA RHO

Approximately 25 rushees, attended the first A G R rush party on Monday, October 12 at Teenville.

Barbecue and refreshments were served while rushees got acquainted with the active members. Those actives who had attended the A G R National Convention at Colorado State University during the summer, showed films of their trip.

A masquerade party was the theme of the second rush party on October 19 at Teenville.

PHI DELTA THETA

The Phi Delta Theta colony is now centering most of its time and activities around the fall rush and Homecoming.

As far as Homecoming, the Phi Deltas are planning its activities for the big weekend, but most of its time is being spent on their float. The Phi Deltas along with their alumni are looking forward to a big Homecoming celebration and festivities on the Hill.

As for rush, they have their last rush party tomorrow night and are looking for a partner for their pledgeship.

Debate Team Prepares For Georgia Trip

Last weekend, Western's debate team traveled to Bellerme College in Louisville for its first debate tournament of the year.

Out of a total of 8 debates, Western won four. The negative team of Stan Whitaker, and Reed Morgan, both junior English majors, claimed victories in two of their four debates. The affirmative team of George Wilson, a sophomore in pre-law, and Doug Matyka, a sophomore in pre-engineering, won two of their four debates in the all-day tourney.

Other colleges participating in the events were Eastern, Georgetown, Bellerme, Ursuline, and Pikeville. For many of these schools, this also was the first tournament of the year.

This Tuesday, Western will travel to Vanderbilt University in Nashville for three practice rounds per team in preparation for the University of Georgia Debates.

Various Government Jobs Are Available For Seniors

M. L. Archer, representative of the state Personnel department, recently talked with several government and political science majors in regard to positions open to them upon their graduation from college.

The merit system which was enacted by the 1960 legislature and went into effect July 1, 1961, not only provides a higher quality of employees in the various governmental agencies, but also makes the jobs more attractive to college graduates.

The entrance salary for these jobs has been improved and in addition, participants receive on-the-spot training in their respective fields. The purpose of the program is to bring into state government more highly trained personnel in order to improve the quality of work produced.

Various departments in which college graduates may be hired are revenue, commerce, finance, highway, and many other agencies of state government. Robert Bell, Commissioner of Parks, will be on the Western campus Nov. 16 to further discuss job opportunities with state related agencies.

Alley Playhouse Sets Productions

"Bell, Book and Candle" by John Van Drutten will have its debut in Bowling Green on Nov. 14. On opening night of the Bowling Green Alley Playhouse, the lights will go down at 8:15 p.m. After the first performance there will be a reception.

Playing in "Bell, Book and Candle" are Frank S. Hammond as Sheppard Henderson, Patti Gillespie as Gillian Holroyd, Tommy Higgason as Nicky Holroyd, Howard Doll as Redlich and Pauline Romano as Aunt Queenie.

The price for those who are interested in a single season membership is $6.00. Interested persons may call the Alley Playhouse for details at 842-0451.

For those who are interested in a working membership, the price is $4.00. In order to maintain a working membership it will be necessary to work in some capacity with at least two productions each season.

The plays scheduled for this season's playbill are "Bell, Book and Candle," "A Case of Libel" based on Louis Nizer's "My Life in Court," "Little Hut" an English comedy, and the beloved "Cinderella."

All reservations must be made in advance of the production because of limited seating space. The theater is in the round with seating on three sides.

"The aim of this theater is to provide a cultural outlet for Bowling Green and the surrounding area. Eventually the group hopes to import some leading talent in the entertainment world to star in Playhouse productions with Playhouse members in the minor roles," says Carol Robertson, one of the Chairmen of the Board. Others on the Board are Doug Robertson, Dr. Russell H. Miller, Jim and John Burt and L. O. Underwood.

All Alley Playhouse productions are being directed by Dr. Russell H. Miller of the Western Speech and Dramatics department.

meeting at the A-A Building.

Also announced was the name of this year's recipient of the second annual W Club plaque. Coach Tom Ecker, who has been named O.V.C. Track Coach of the Year, will be presented a plaque by Western athletes at a future meeting. Last year Coach Nick Denes received the award.

The club's next meeting is set for Nov. 10. All members are urged to attend.

New Officers Are Announced By Arts Group

New officers were elected for five positions in the Arts and Crafts club at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, October 6, in the Industrial Arts building. Also twelve new members were added to the club.

The newly elected officers are: secretary, Bruce Cleveland; treasurer, Wayland Pulliam; sergeant-at-arms, Carl Warner; historian, Bill Parson; and reporter, James Peden.

Committee reports were given by Don Pierce and Jim Borches. Much business was discussed and returned to the committees for final action. President Jerry Hardy reminded the members of the upcoming Kentucky Industrial Education Association meeting to be held next month in Louisville.

After the meeting was adjourned the club officers discussed some plans for the coming year with President Hardy.

Dramatics Honorary Meets At Dinner

The first dinner meeting of Alpha Psi Omega honorary dramatics fraternity was at the Holiday Inn recently.

Present at the meeting as guests were Dr. Mildred Howard who will head the experimental theater as faculty advisor for 1964-65, and Leonard Hart of the dramatics and speech staff of the English department.

Faculty Members Keep Busy With Activities

Billy Adams, assistant professor of agriculture, has been appointed to the Governor's Commission for Improvement of Agriculture Economy for the State. The appointment was announced by Gov. Edward Breathitt recently.

Adams is recognized as one of the foremost men in knowledge and interest in the dairy industry.

The commission is part of the Governor's program for the development of Kentucky's farm economy from $75 million to one billion dollars. Dairying is one part of the commission which is broken down into 12 commodity divisions.

Miss Margie Helm, director of Library Services, recently spoke to the Auburn Rotary club at a regular weekly noon meeting. She spoke on Western's Library and its expanded program.

Mrs. Judy Rucker is the new full-time secretary for the English department. Mrs. Rucker, originally from Greeneville, Tenn., was graduated from the Bowling Green College of Commerce. Mr. and Mrs. Rucker and their daughter Becky, reside at 525 Lansdale in Bowling Green.

Dr. Paul Hatcher, head of the Foreign Language department, will preside at the luncheon meeting of the Kentucky chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French in session at the University of Kentucky Student Center in Lexington, Sat., Oct. 31.

Dr. Hatcher is president of the group for 1964-65. The meeting is in connection with the annual educational conference and meeting of the Kentucky Association of Colleges, Elementary and Secondary Schools, Oct. 29-31.

Alumni News

Dr. Charles S. Smith, AB '42, received a $350 grant from the National Science Foundation to attend a conference on linear algebra for college teachers of mathematics at the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California. Dr. Smith, presently a member of the faculty at Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., is one of 30 teachers across the country invited to attend the conference to explore the modern ramifications of mathematics and its broadening scope.

Gary M. Costello, AB '64, is a volunteer teacher with the Peace Corps now teaching in Somalia, Africa. He has recently completed a ten-week training program at Eastern Michigan University.

Miss Edna Lucille Ross, AB '54, received the Master of Arts in library science from George Peabody College for Teachers on August 15. Miss Ross is a librarian at Charlestown high school, Charlestown, Ind.

Pensive Nick Denes Prepares Tops, Self For Homecoming

Western's 1963 OVC Coach of the Year is pictured above as he prepares his Hilltoppers for Saturday's Homecoming battle with archrival Eastern Kentucky. Denes' many exploits are shown as he watches his team go through a serious workout. Eastern defeated No. 2 ranked Findlay College of Ohio last week 17-14. The Toppers spoiled the Maroon's homecoming last year 29-6 in Richmond.

Eastern To Test Western's Explosive Attack

The OVC's upstart-upset duos, Western and Eastern, collide Saturday as the Hilltoppers entertain their 35th annual Homecoming guests at 2 p. m. in Western Stadium.

Last Saturday, Western exploded for 30 points in 27 minutes and 20 seconds during the second half to trump host Evansville's previously undefeated Aces, 37-0.

Earlier Eastern's Maroons, winless until an Oct. 17 thumping over East Tennessee, 35-13, dumped the No. 2 ranked small college team Findlay, 17-14.

1-2 Punches Matched

The Western Homecoming battle will match the Topper's 1-2 punch, quarterback Sharon Miller and halfback Jim Burt, against the Maroons' point-producing pair, quarterback Larry Marmie and freshman tailback Aaron Marsh.

Against Evansville, Miller completed 6 of 11 passes for 85 yards and eight points, including a 42 yard aerial early in the third period to Jim Burt. Miller's credentials for the season show 31 of 74 passes completed for 442 yard, three touchdowns and one two-point conversion.

Jim Burt has snatched 10 of Miller's bombs for 182 yards and two touchdowns.

Brother John Burt is the Top's leading rusher, having gained 347 yards in 75 rushes for 4.6 yards per carry. The Burt Brothers accounted for 112 yards of Western's 210 yard rushing total at Evansville.

Marmie Leads Upset

Eastern's Marmie led Eastern's upset over Findlay by passing for 82 yards. But Marsh, against East Tennessee, electrified Maroon fans by taking the opening kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown which was nullified by a clipping penalty.

Marsh later pulverized the Pirate defenses by scoring three touchdowns, on runs of 10, and 19 yards and a kickoff return of 89 yards in the first half.

At Evansville, Western played a 50-50 first half before falling on a Jim Burt to Stan Napper 27 yard TD pass in the second quarter. Stellar Topper safety Pat Counts plunked a stray pass from Ace slinger

Kim DeVault, returning the ball to the Evansville 26 yard line to set up the TD series.

50 Second Offense

Then Western's explosive point-a-minute offense was detected. Continued on page 16, column 2

Freshman Pat DeLuca (left) has paced the Western cross country team to a perfect 4-0 slate thus far this season. DeLuca has set course records every time he has run. John Sears (right) is another big reason for the Topper's success. He has been a consistent runner all season for coach Tom Ecker's harriers.

Toppers To Visit Murray's Racers

By JAMES DAVENPORT
Fielding one of the nation's top-notch cross country units, Western seeks its 13th consecutive meet win at arch-rival OVC foe Murray, Friday. Freshman runner Pat DeLuca will attempt to remain undefeated in his fifth running event. DeLuca has paced the Topper attack by placing first against Eastern, Middle Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Florida. The tremendous success of Western's cross-country team has been due largely to a team effort, although recently five of the nine harriers have been more consistent in their running. Top Five These five harriers have been: DeLuca, John Sears, Peter Sullivan, Butch Holden, and Richard Ziegler.

"There is such depth on this team that we could have any four members absent from the team and still have an excellent chance to win," said coach Tom Ecker. "This group is a very spirited group and will be nationally ranked by the end of the season," the enthusiastic mentor concluded. Captain Tom Graham attributes the success of the team to Ecker. "Coach Ecker's recruiting abilities are the best of any coach in the South," said Graham.

OVC Meet, Nov. 21 Tennessee Tech will be here on November 6 and Western will run the University of Tennessee at Knoxville on November 14. Western will be trying for their first OVC cross country crown on November 21 at Murfreesboro.

Florida Or Bust
Eleven members of Western's cross-country team crossed the state of Florida border en route to Gainesville before tromping the University of Florida and Georgia Tech in a double dual meet. Western's harriers, coached by Tom Ecker, are vying for national recognition after building a 12 meet victory string in the brief three year history of the sport on the Hilltop.

Western Forms Track Club

Western's newly formed track club will participate in a pre-season track meet Monday at Knoxville, Tenn. The goal of the club's one-mile relay team will be to shatter the standing record of 3:16.4. Roy S. Turner, Merrill Clark, Harry Martin, Bob A. Bonadies, and Gary Hollingsworth will make up the relay team. Henry Wadsworth, a pole vaulter who has cleared the 16-foot mark, will participate for the club in high-jump competition as well as in pole-vaulting.

WESTERN'S JIM MALONE
One of Western's outstanding tennis players James E. Malone made a name for himself this summer. Malone won the Men's Singles City Championship of Cleveland, Ohio. The city sent him to Los Angeles where he reached the quarterfinals in the National Public Park Tennis Tournament.

Head Coach

Head basketball coach Johnny Oldham and the Western Hilltoppers will play an intra-squad exhibition contest in the new Leitchfield high school Nov. 6. Proceeds from the contest will be used to pay for installed folding bleachers. Kentucky Wesleyan will compete in an intra-squad exhibition Thursday, Nov. 16 in the combination gymnasium, auditorium and music building. The new structure replaces an under-sized facility formerly used by Grayson County quintets.

ELECT CHEERLEADERS
College High School students recently selected their cheerleaders for the 1964-65 season. Leading yells for the Cardinals will be seniors Carol Miliken, Linda Delotus and Dottie Hild, along with juniors Georgeanna Sleamaker, Linda Thomas, and Maggie Sue Walker.

The Western basketball team recently elected Ralph Baker, senior "fireman," as its 1964-65 captain and senior Ray Rherer, a starting guard for two years, as alternate captain.

Intramural Corner

Planning is now underway for competition in men's intramural handball (singles), volleyball, table tennis, bridge, and chess. Tournaments will be held in each of these activities provided there is sufficient student interest. All individuals, clubs, or fraternities who plan to enter in any of these events are asked to contact John Hopper and make their intentions known immediately. This is necessary in order to assure competition in all activities. Hopper's office is Room 237, A-A Building. Flag footballers entered the final three weeks of the regular season Monday with 5 teams remaining undefeated. Sigma Phi Alpha (6-0) and Delta Kappa Nu (4-0) now appear likely to remain undefeated until their head-on clash next week. That game should decide the winner of the fraternity division. Independent powers Jefferson county (4-0) and Roadrunners (5-0) meet tomorrow in the game which will probably determine the champion of their division.

However, both must meet likewise undefeated Tri-County (4-0) next week. Tri-County could win it all, but faces the unlikely task of beating both rivals in consecutive games. Here are the standings for games completed through last Thursday.

Tips For Homecoming

Girls--It's Called Football, So Don't Panic

BY BETTY CAMNITZ

This is it girls! Homecoming is upon us! It's the time of parades, dances, mums, and last but not least, that all important football game.

After saying seven thank you prayers to the goddess of single coeds for that date good ol' Cousin George got you, it's off

DREAM MAKER—RECORD BREAKER

Those four words are a true indication of what the 1964 Western Homecoming means to Western coaches, players, fans and alumni.

The current band of hurrying Hillmen, during this football season have the credentials to make dreams come true and already have broken records.

This year's edition of the Hilltoppers, under head coach Nick Denes and his staff, extended several streaks from the 1963 season and have started a new string.

Three Winning Marks Set

In their opening victory over Southeast Missouri, the Toppers ran their defeatless string to 14 games along with a 10 game win streak and a nine game OVC winning string. Those three records were halted at East Tennessee when the Bucs came from behind to dump the Toppers, 16-9.

By dropping a 9-0 contest in Western Stadium to Middle Tennessee, the Topper string of 19 point-producing games was snapped. Since the MTSC contest, Western has jelled and now is making a serious run for an upper echelon position in the OVC.

Yes, it's a new Western unit that will battle Eastern Saturday. The Hilltoppers, now looking toward a great future, display explosiveness, whereas the 1963 team flashed with consistency.

Win All Remaining Games

The current dream of Western followers is to win all remaining games on the 1964 schedule. Based on the 37-0 thrashing Western handed Evansville, that dream will come true.

"We would be undefeated now, if we had played all our games this year like we did at Evansville," Denes observed.

11 Seniors In Homecoming Finale

Western's dreams of future gridiron success appears as bright as its past performances. Eleven seniors will be playing their last Homecoming contest at Western Saturday. But behind those stalwarts is a talented football-wise contingent.

Sophomore Ralph Seibel, who tossed two TD passes at Evansville, and junior Joe Bill Campbell solidify the quarterback slot behind seniors Sharon Miller and Pat Counts.

Backfield prospects include already-proven junior fullback John Burt, sophomore punter Ernie Hall, junior linebacker-fullback Dale Lindsey, halfback Elmer Murray, Milt Pullen and Dan Sundberg.

Up front dream makers are soph center Bob Bondurant, juniors Ken Frick, guard; Jerry Matthews, end; Harry Reif, center; Ken Waller and sophs Tommy Watkins and Charles Webb at end.

Combine those young and eager Toppers with the explosive ability of 11 Hilltop seniors and Western is truly the home of dream makers and record breakers.

to the stadium to see Western beat the maroon out of Eastern. Let us profit from last year's mistakes.

I bet you wonder what happened to your date for last year's homecoming — the one you asked which of the players made that pretty home run. Western isn't that big, yet you haven't seen him since he left you in the stadium last October.

THIS YEAR IS DIFFERENT

But this year will have to be different girls. You aren't getting any younger, and football isn't going to be any easier to understand. Those televised football games were certainly helpful. You can carry on a decent conversation with any one of those players, (and don't you wish you'd get the chance?)

You've learned that rushing isn't only done by sororities and fraternities, and that the snapper isn't a fish — he and the quarterback have something going. With these two vital bits of knowledge you trudge confidently toward the stadium knowing that this game is going to be the best one yet. You do a great job of playing mountain goat as you stumble up to your lofty perch, stepping on as few new suits as possible.

SNAGGED HOSE

After reaching the summit and snagging your hose, you survey the playing field and decide immediately that those little white lines have some definite purpose. They could be there to help the band make those cute formations, but on television there weren't any bands, but there were plenty of lines.

Those little men with the chains seemed to be awfully interested in those lines, so you decide to watch and see what happens. No questions — remember last year! Out onto the field come the boys in their pretty red and white jerseys.

This game has prospects of being an exciting one. In the middle of those lines, chiefs are flipping to see who buys the soft drinks after the game. The loser gets so mad he runs down the field and kicks the ball as hard as he can at the other boys who didn't do a thing. He must be sorry right away because he runs down the field after it and gets his gang to follow him.

NOW FIGHT BEGINS

Now the fight begins. This is where the men with the chains start acting all concerned about those lines. Just remember to keep your eye on the red men — the other ones are the bad guys. You're doing great as long as you don't say anything — just keep agreeing with your date.

Everyone is standing up, and your date gives you a swift jab in the ribs and mumbles, "Look at him go!" There must be some action somewhere, but all you can see is red and blue. Some idiot behind you with a Confederate flag and an off-tune fight song from the civil war has waved his banner in your direction. As you fight to free yourself from this fabric that has wrapped itself around your head, you hear the roar of the crowd plus the hysterical laughter of your date.

So you missed the best run in Western's history — at least you're keeping your date entertained. The game is ending now. Continued on page 16, column 1

Jim Burt Named 'Player Of The Week'

Halfback Jim Burt, who helped his Western mates dump previously undefeated Evansville, was honored by the Associated Press as Kentucky college player of the week.

Burt led the team last year in total offense, rushing and touchdown passes, while ranking second in pass receiving and punt returns.

On the OVC statistic chart, Western signal-caller Sharon Miller ranks fifth in total offense with 442 yards, John Burt is fifth in rushing and second with a 4.6 yard rushing average and Ernie Hall ranks third in punting with a 38.1 mean. The OVC named Eastern's

Topper Hardwood Drills Start Under Coach Oldham

The new-look 1964-65 Western Hilltopper basketball team rolled off the assembly line recently after their first workout with new coach Johnny Oldham.

With Oldham giving the commands, Western embarked upon the beginning of a coaching transition which is as fresh looking as the Academic-Athletic Building which houses the basketball fortunes of the Toppers.

The event marked the first time in 42 seasons that a new coach called the basketball drills to order.

The silver-haired towel-tossing E. A. Diddle, who mentored 32 conference championships and 759 games during his colorful tenure as Hilltopper skipper, is retired as basketball coach.

The youthful one-time All-American from the Hilltop, Oldham will attempt to carry on the Diddle winning tradition.

Topper Returnees
Returning to the Hilltopper camp are senior guard Ray Rhorer (10.5), senior forward Ralph Baker (5.1), sophomores Steve Cunningham (7.7), Charles Shuffield (4.7) and Kellar Works (2.9).

Creating much of the new look atmosphere are junior college graduates Bob Daniel, a 6-7 stalwart who averaged 39.8 points per game at Bluefield, W. Va., and 6-5 Jackie Butler, who tallied 26 ppg for Vincennes, Ind.

All-American schoolboy Clem "The Cat" Haskins heads an impressive list of sophomores. Haskins led the frosh with a 24.9 average, while flashing a new offensive or defensive move in each frosh encounter.

The other sophomores are

Billy Warren (14.9), Dwight Smith (12.0), Pearl Hicks (11.5), Hamilton Watkins (6.9), Vint Pease (4.7), Woody Gardner (2.7) and Mike Kitchens (1.8).

Wayne Chapman, 6-6 transfer from the University of Kentucky, will be eligible next year.

Eleven Freshmen
Freshman coach Buck Synd-nor met eleven recruits, 8 of them from Kentucky.

Bluegrass boys are 6-0 Lonnie Arnett, Mayfield; 6-0 Ricky Carver, Scottsville; 5-11 Jerry Everly, Bowling Green; 6-2 Joe Mac Hill, Beaver Dam; 5-11 Butch Kaufman, Louisville; 5-11 Marshall Mason, Providence; 6-5 Greg Smith, Princeton; and 6-5 Norm Weaver, Scottsville.

ON THE AIR

By

Doug Hundley

It was during the spring semester of 1964 that Albert Typewriter, a Western student for seven years majoring in pre-pharmacy, decided he would like a bite to eat. Needing money for the pursuance of such a noble endeavor, Albert struck upon a great idea with much jubilation and gnashing of teeth. He would vend pencils.

The brilliant Mr. Typewriter borrowed $43.72, and with this he bought some wood, and some lead, and some knife.

He then spent many long nights in his cold room whittling wood, and inserting lead, and listening to Night Flight over WKCT Radio, 930 kc., between 8:30 and 11:00 C.S.T. Monday through Friday on his little radio, which he made from some wood and some lead and some transistor.

So inspiring was the music and the news that he heard on Night Flight that Albert worked with great fervor and soon had completed 888 pencils which he sold for a total of over $44.00 and bought himself a ham sandwich and a big root beer. Albert also paid off his loan and changed his major to football so he could listen to Wes Strader call the play-by-play on all of Western's games over WKCT.

You don't have to be a football major to listen to WKCT. Tune us in at that 930 spot anytime for the best in radio listening.

Faculty Members Attend Conference

Last Friday and Saturday, six members of Western's faculty participated in the Speech Educator's Conference on the campus of the University of Kentucky at Lexington.

On Friday morning, Dr. William M. Jenkins, Dean of the College of Commerce, spoke on the subject "Speech Concerns in Political Science." Friday afternoon, "The Role of the Director" was the topic discussed by Dr. Russell H. Miller, director of Western's theater. That same afternoon, Randall Capps, debate coach for the college, was moderator of a panel discussing "Administering the Forensics Program." Capps also presided on Saturday afternoon at the first debate of the month between Harrodsburg high school and Henry Clay.

The Speech Educator's Conference is sponsored annually by the Kentucky Speech Association and is devoted to the program of better speech in Kentucky. More than 300 teachers of speech are presently enrolled in the program. Dr. J. W. Patterson of the University of Kentucky is president; Capps is serving as vice-president.

Dr. Mildred Howard and Mrs. Frances Dixon from Western's speech staff and Miss Alba Broach from College high also attended the conference.

with Western ahead by 36 points. You've cheered yourself hoarse and developed a terrific crush on the new quarterback — the one with the clean uniform.

HE'S WAVING AT YOU

In a tense moment you yell your encouraging words to him as he gives his friends in the pow-wow the word. All of a sudden you notice he's waving at you. You wave frantically back and scream his name. Things were never so good in the cafeteria! He keeps waving and you keep screaming.

Now he has those striped men waving at you too. Awfully nice of them to take an interest in your love life. Things have grown strangely quiet, your date is a beautiful crimson, and all eyes have turned toward you.

Something is amiss. Your date is muttering words your mother told you nice people didn't say. You get the idea. After the noise level has been returned to normal, the new quarterback calls his signals and the game continues. Your date turns slowly back to his normal color.

And to think, you'll never see him again!

onated. In the third period with 6:29 remaining, Jim Burt slid off tackle 14 yards to score and to give Western a 13-0 lead.

The fleet halfback grabbed a five-yard TD flip from Miller with only 25 seconds showing in the third period. Miller tossed to Stan Napper for the two-point conversion.

The Topper salvo continued in the final period when guard Ed Crum kicked a 23 yard field goal.

Hoosier Hurler

Substitute quarterback Ralph Seibel, sophomore from Greensburg, Ind., embarrassed the Purple Aces' secondary by tossing a pair of scoring passes. The lanky tosser hit Jerry Matthews with an 18 yard pass with 8:01 remaining. Sam Clark added the PAT.

With less than a minute to go, Seibel hurled a pass from the 17 yard line caught by end Tommy Watkins in the end zone — Evansville no longer was among the undefeated.

SNEA Presents Annual Style Show Last Night

Snell Hall was the scene last night of the 1964 SNEA Fashion Show. Clothes with the college student in mind were supplied by Bowling Green merchants and modeled by SNEA members.

The suppliers included: Durbin, Fashion House, Golden Farley, Golden Shoppe, Hall's Mens Shop, Normans, Plaza Fashions, Pushins, and Rabolds.

Modeling the clothes were: Vicki Barnett, Pam Barfield, Nancy Boyles, Nancy Clayton, Alberta Davidson, Jane Helm, Susan Jackson, Ramona Laffoon, Carolyn McClard, Bonnie McCredie, Rickie Melvin, Pat Reaves, Sharon Rettig, Sally Smith, Jenny Schmidt, Emily Spurrier, Gay Sharp, Linda Toohey, Sara Jane West, Bonnie Potts, Carroll Adams, Mike Ashby, James Bell, Bob Farmer, Jack Mahurin, Boyd Melvin, Jack Rhodes, and William Schlinder.

The chairman and co-chairman of the show were Joe Haselden and DiAnne Leach, who also narrated the program.

Behind the scenes were: Louis Lee — lighting; Raycella Newkirk and Agnita Ruff — program; Barbara Dudak — tickets; Connie Day and Peggy Cox — faculty invitations; James Bell — guest book; DiAnne Clifton — easel; Norma Mudd, Sharon Roby, Joy Collier and George Rogers — publicity; and Louis Lee — PA system.

Prizes were given away at intermission by participating stores, and Pushin's supplied the back drop.

CORRECTION

Mrs. Grace Overby, secretary in the Placement and Alumni Office, and Miss Georgia Bates, secretary to President Kelly Thompson, attended the Muhlenberg County Alumni club meeting at Greenville Tuesday, Oct. 13. The names of these two ladies were inadvertently omitted from the story about the meeting which appeared in last week's issue of the Herald.
